

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is an abuse of the public airwaves.

The FCC must protect the public "commons" from abuse by wealthy corporations, whatever their political leanings. By law, use of our free airwaves must serve the public interest. The forced airing of one minority's political perspective without providing a similar platform for other viewpoints does not serve the interests of democracy.

The FCC must act to protect the public which it serves.

Thank you.
